SCOPE

Your privacy is important to Hoglund, Chwialkowski & Mrozik, PLLC, In this Privacy Statement, you can learn what kind of information we collect, when and how we might use that information, how we protect the information, who has access to it, and what choices you have with respect to your personal information.

This Privacy Statement applies only to information collected online from the users of this website. Unless expressly stated, this Privacy Statement does not apply to information we may collect in any other way, including offline.

Our website may contain links to sites maintained by others. This Privacy Statement does not reflect the privacy practices of those sites and if you have any questions about the privacy practices associated with those sites, please review the privacy statement posted on each site.

Please read this Privacy Statement in its entirety to understand the following:

WHAT PERSONAL INFORMATION DOES HOGLUND, CHWIALKOWSKI, & MROZIK, PLLC COLLECT AND HOW DOES IT USE THAT INFORMATION?

We collect information about our users in three ways: directly from the user, from our Web server logs, and through cookies. We use the information primarily to provide you with a personalized Internet experience that delivers the information, resources, and services that are most relevant and helpful to you. We don't share any of the information you provide with others, unless we say so in this Privacy Statement, or when we believe in good faith that the law requires it.

User-Supplied Information: When you request an attorney or our legal staff for our services or order products via our site, we ask you to provide some personal information

(such as your name, address, phone number, e-mail address, and/or certain additional categories of information resulting from use of our websites and services, such as research requests). We keep this information in a contact data base for future reference, as needed. We may use certain information you provide to offer you products and services that we believe may be of interest to you. If you don't wish to receive such offers, you may opt out (unsubscribe) as described below.

Web server logs and Google Analytics: When you visit our website, we may track information about your visit and store that information in web server logs, which are records of the activities on our sites. Our servers automatically capture and save the information electronically. Examples of the information we may collect include:

- your unique Internet protocol address;
- the name of your unique Internet service provider;
- the town/city, county/state and country from which you access our website;
- the kind of browser or computer you use;
- the number of links you click within the site;
- the date and time of your visit;
- the web page from which you arrived to our site;
- the pages you viewed on the site; and
- certain searches/queries that you conducted via our website(s).

The information we collect in web server logs helps us administer the site, analyze its usage, protect the website and its content from inappropriate use and improve the user's experience.

Cookies: In order to offer and provide a customized and personal service, our websites and applications may use cookies to store and help track information about you. Cookies are simply small pieces of data that are sent to your browser from a Web server and stored on your computer's hard drive. We use cookies to help remind us who you are and to help you navigate our sites during your visits. Cookies allow us to save preferences for you so you won't have to re-enter them each time you visit.

The use of cookies is relatively standard. Most browsers are initially set up to accept cookies. However, if you prefer, you can set your browser to either notify you when you receive a cookie, or to refuse to accept cookies. You should understand that some features of many sites may not function properly if you don't accept cookies.

WHO HAS ACCESS TO THE INFORMATION?

We will not sell, rent, or lease mailing lists or other customer data to others, and we will not make your personal information available to any unaffiliated parties, except as follows:

- to attorneys that you have authorized us to share the information with.
- as required by law, in a matter of public safety or policy, as needed in connection with the transfer of our business assets (for example, if we are acquired by another company or if we are liquidated during bankruptcy proceedings), or if we believe in good faith that sharing the data is necessary to protect our rights or property.

HOW MAY I CORRECT, AMEND OR DELETE MY PERSONAL INFORMATION AND/OR UPDATE MY PREFERENCES?
